

Championship & MVP Rings, T-shirts

The Herff-Jones ring representative for Roy Hobbs Baseball will be available Friday afternoon, Saturday and Sunday morning to talk with interested teams and players about team championship rings and MVP rings.

Jamie Pruitt will represent Herff-Jones, and he will have ring samples, pricing and sizing materials. He will be located at the Roy Hobbs World Series Headquarters at Lee County Stadium.

All RHWS championship teams may purchase rings, applying any or all of their winning stipend to the fee. AAAA teams win the rings or a waiver fee to the 2012 RHWS.

Championship teams may also purchase a RHWS Championship T-Shirt, which should be delivered within 10 days. Staff members will be modeling that shirt on Friday and Saturday. See Mary Ann in the Pro Shop or Meranda in the headquarters office to order shirts.

All teams select an MVP player for their efforts at the 2011 World Series.

The honorees or their managers should come to the World Series Headquarters on Friday or Saturday to register for their award, which is a Cage Jacket or pullover or polo shirt, all of which are embroidered with the World Series logo, an MVP moniker and the player's name.

Additionally, MVP winner may order a World Series MVP ring. Samples of the ring can be seen in the World Series Pro Shop on the Concourse of Lee County Stadium.

Check them out at Lee County Stadium ...

Fathers and Sons... ...At the Ballpark

The Roy Hobbs Series is all about good friends and family.

And a father and son playing together is nothing new, but usually they are members of a team that enters the Series.

But not George Peterson and son Clark. They signed up as pool players but still wound up on the same team—the Kent Mudhens.

This is George's third trip to Fort Myers, so when Clark decided to sign up, he had no trouble joining his son in the Masters division since he was coming to Florida to play in the Legends Division already. George lives in Champaign, IL, where he retired from banking after 35 years.

Clark is from Portage, MI, where he runs the Golf Performance Academy of Southwest Michigan. Clark was a pro-golfer for 20 years, playing in tournaments around the country.

When did Dad first put a ball in his son's hands: "He was just a toddler," said George.

And at 2 or 3, Clark saw green tomatoes in the garden and thought they were balls, so he picked them to throw.

George said he soon cured that: "with one good spanking."

Both Petersons played baseball in high school, college and American Legion.

George is a pitcher while Clark is an infielder, but he's had the chance to catch for his dad here this year.

George coached both Clark and his brother in little league and he didn't give them a choice; they had to "get out there."

George and Clark Peterson

The brother hasn't played for several years, but Clark has three sons, all who play ball. He also has a daughter who is into softball and water sports.

Grandpa is looking forward to one day playing with his son and his grandsons.

Baseball runs in Clark's family, since he's married to the daughter of former New York Yankee Pitcher Bill Stafford. They met when Clark was playing in a golf tournament in Peoria, IL, and she worked for the country club.

Both men intend to make the Roy Hobbs World Series an annual event, "good Lord willing," George added.

Tickets are $1 apiece or 6 for $5. Tickets are on sale at the T-shirt kiosk at Lee County Stadium.

The Roy Hobbs Foundation was established to raise monies for research on finding a cure for Leukemia and to assist our Challenged Athlete friends.

Drink water

Even though it is a little cooler, this still stands true... Drink Water.

This is just a reminder that with the heat and the humidity that everyone needs to stay hydrated. The heat is sneaky. Don't let it sneak up on you.

Everyone needs to keep drinking water before games and throughout games. Once you get into a heat problem, you cannot make up the lost fluid in a hurry, and it takes time to replace a body's fluids once they are depleted.

Results corrections

Please check the posted results and standings each day.

Managers should contact Rob or Adam at Tournament Headquarters (239.533.7694) with corrections to scores.

That's the best way to make sure that seedings and pairings are accurate.
