Team friends, family stop play with their 7th inning chorus

When the 7th inning stretch comes around for the Ohio-Penn Silverhawks the sound of music fills the air. For the past 8 years at the Roy Hobbs World Series, the Silverhawks ladies break out in a song that stops play on nearby fields and wherever the sound carries.

The ladies, wives and relatives of Silverhawks players—nine this year—sing “God Bless America.” Caps come off to cover hearts as anybody within earshot comes to attention and listens to the girls. In past years as many as 18 spouses, fans and significant others joined in.

Cheryl Williams started the tradition after her husband Mickey Williams passed away in 2008. Mickey Williams died at 54, just a month after playing in a Roy Hobbs World Series. Devoted to baseball as a player, a mentor and a coach, Mickey scheduled his life around the game. Cheryl attended the Series for the next few years to lead them in song, but now her grandkids keep her too busy to attend. Each member of the team wears a patch in remembrance of Mickey.

Lending their voices to the 7th Inning Stretch this year are Kate Schwab, daughter of Tim Donaldson; Lisa Stadvec, wife of outfielder Bob; Linda Wilcox, sister of Steve Wilcox; Marie Derk, wife of pitcher/outfielder Keith; Terri Fogle, girlfriend of shortstop/catcher Bill Churma; Connie Wells, wife of outfielder John; Lori Smith with pitcher/infielder Bob Vaughn; Annie Donaldson, wife of 3rd baseman David and Sue McDade, wife of centerfielder Rod.

These folks have established a great musical tradition for their team at the Roy Hobbs World Series. So stop and take a listen if you're nearby.

If so, Roy Hobbs has a recognition pin for players with 10 or 15 or 20 years at the Tournament. See Karen or Rob at RHWS headquarters to get your pin.

Ice for the injured

Just a reminder that Roy Hobbs will furnish ice for injuries.

However, we advise managers from the start that they need to provide ice for pitchers arms, if needed. That's something to plan for ... injuries are another story.

For injuries, please contact Hobbs personnel at the field site for assistance.

Results corrections

Please check the posted results and standings each day.

Managers should contact Rob at the Tournament Headquarters (239.533.7694) with corrections to scores.

That's the best way to make sure that playoff seedings and pairings are as accurate as we can make them.

Please help with dugouts

Roy Hobbs Baseball and the grounds crews need your help in the dugouts.

When your games are over and you are leaving the dugout, please police it for trash and cups, etc. Your assistance in cleaning up the dugouts each day will be greatly appreciated.

Glove repair

David McLaughlin is the Roy Hobbs World Series glove-repair specialist.

He will be stationed at the Player Development Complex during daylight hours this week.

Otherwise, you can reach Dave at 941.979.2030 ... he will make arrangements for you to drop your glove off at the World Series Headquarters and he will set up pickup and delivery service.
